REPORT OF SELECTMEN.

In presenting the annual report we wish to call the attention of the tax payers to a few items of expense that have occurred the past year, unexpectedly. First, Our attention was called to the condition of the West Henniker bridge. After a thorough examination decided to repair the same which was done to an expense of $556.51, and according to the opinion of good authority that with a little attention each year it would last for many years.

Then the stone work of the iron bridge at West Henniker gave way and had to be relaid at an expense of $104.56.

We take this time and space to explain about not having the alterations made to the town house, as was voted at your last annual meeting. The town house was painted at an expense of $115.00 and arrangements made for the repair work but on account of sickness and delay in other work the carpenter could not do the job and have it completed before this present year.

Then our attention was called to an accident that occurred at the town hall to Mrs. Gertrude B. Herron of Harwickport, Mass. It was caused by the giving way of the piano stool that she was sitting upon to play at the piano, last October. After much time and attention had been put into the case by our lawyer, J. H. Albin, we were advised to settle the case or the town would have a law suit upon them, and after an examination by Dr. Ella Blaylock Atherton of Nashua, N. H., (the report we have on hand) the case was settled at an expense to the town of $558.75, except Mr. Albin's bill which has not been presented.

We wish to thank the citizens of the town for the courtesy shown us the past year.

The following report for the year ending Feb. 15, 1908, is respectfully submitted.

HARRY A. TUCKER,
EDWARD CONNELLY,
GEORGE N. GOODWIN,

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

The town has been free from contagious disease during the past year, except whooping-cough which has prevailed to some considerable extent during the fall and winter.

There has been one case of typhoid fever.

Five cases of measles have occurred which owing to the observance of our quarantine laws were confined to one house.

There has been no death from contagious disease in town during the year.

By first analysis of the State Laboratory of Hygiene the Henniker Spring water was found impure. The second time samples were sent of all the wells, one well was found impure by surface water running into it. The well was immediately shut off.

There have been two complaints of nuisance presented to the board during the year.

GEO. H. DODGE,
E. M. CLOUGH,

REPORT OF BOARD OF ENGINEERS.

During the past year the department has responded to four bell alarms and several times detachments have attended to chimney and brush fires.

The total fire loss has been $7,000, and is the largest in one year loss since 1900. In view of the experience gained during the past year, the Board would make the following recommendations, that each householder examine the condition of his chimneys and make sure they are tight, also see that a practicable stopper is put in all funnel openings not in use.

Arrange so that any well or other water supply about the buildings can be got at and used by the engine in case of need.

Procure a Standard fire extinguisher such as is used by the department and have it ready to use at any time. Ninety-eight (98) per cent of all fires are discovered before they assume a dangerous size and could easily be put out by the use of an extinguisher.

The apparatus of the department is in good condition, the 200 feet of new hose purchased during the year, making up about all that can be used to advantage with the engine. In closing the Board desires to express its appreciation of the voters and citizens in their efforts towards the betterment of the department and prevention of fires.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

By the advice of the teachers in the high and graded schools, we decided to increase the length of the school year therein from thirty-five to thirty-eight weeks.

We have also added a week to the division schools, making thirty weeks for the year.

We have found our duties as school officials somewhat more strenuous, during the summer vacation, and for the first month of the fall term than is usually the case.

This may be due, in part, to our own mistakes, or errors of judgment, but we believe the growing disregard on the part of teachers of the "Law of Contracts," is one of the principal hindrances of the rural school board in the successful management of our schools. Our condition is probably little different from that of the average country town of the size and means of Henniker.

It is a matter of regret to all interested in the welfare of our schools that nearly one third of the high school teaching force, and a much larger proportion of that of the lower grades changes yearly.

While we recognize the fact that the increasing scarcity of good teachers, like every law of supply and demand, warrants them in securing the best compensation they can for their services, we believe they should carry out the obligations they voluntarily assume.

We question the standard of ethics adopted by some schools boards and superintendents in seeking to unsettle a teacher's contentment during the continuance of their contract service by an offer of a slight increase of salary as a reward for repudiating their obligation.

When district superintendents finds their "Principal source of gratification" in such sharp practice the average citizen will be prone to regard "Expert supervision" as a doubtful blessing.

Another year's experience in our high school leads us to again call your attention to the advisability of further striving for the elusive standard of "State Approval." Without intending any captious criticism of the Department of Public Instruction, we are inclined to believe that its requirement that the small high schools of the state shall measure up to the standard of the larger towns and cities in their course of study and equipment, or make their towns liable for the tuition of such pupils as may choose to attend approved schools away from home, tends to work undue hardship to the taxpayers of the small community.

"It is a condition and not a theory that confronts us." Not that our school board and our citizens generally question the great advantage that would come to the rising generation from a college training, but whether it is wise to exhaust our means in making college fitting our principal aim, when the great majority of our pupils have neither means nor the inclination for a college course.

The present enrollment in our high school the smallest number in its history since 1890, leads us to consider the principal requisite for its successful continuance, boys and girls, and to inquire in all seriousness whether if our course of study fitted for life and business as well as for college, we might not hope to retain our own residents now attending elsewhere at considerable additional expense to their parents.

Our present able and successful principal, by the establishment of a private evening school is doing a most excellent work towards correcting the deficiency of the day school. We believe his service should be retained if possible.

The teachers in the grades and in the mixed schools have been very successful, and weather conditions have been propitious for a good attendance of the pupils. Whooping cough prevailed in nearly all of our schools during the fall term and was the principal cause for the few absent marks.

We would again call the attention of the voters of the district to the importance of a larger attendance at the annual meeting. Less than a dozen remained in the hall while the appropriations were considered last year.

The roll of honor and statistics are for the year ending June 1907.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN OF TUCKER FREE LIBRARY.

The year has passed as usual with the library work, with the exception that the card catalogue has been typewritten, and a Hammond typewriter has been added to the equipment of the office. A new cabinet has been added to the Historical Room and the beautiful collection of china and glass, given by Mrs. Fidelia Carter and daughter, has been placed in it. Some fine pieces of homespun linen are to be added. Two cases, one to contain the Indian relics given Rev. T. C. H. Bouton, the other to contain the collection of coins that were included in the Plummer collection, will soon be in the library.

An unabridged dictionary has been added to the reference library, and we are glad to say that that class of books has been of much use during the year.

Two hundred and ten books have been purchased during the year and 64 have been given. Of those purchased 121 are fiction, 34 are solid and 55 for young people. Of the solid reading the most valuable are McMasters' History of the peoples of the United States, The American Immortals, three volumes of Nature's Library, and an excellent work on Astronomy.

Of the books given 44 are solid reading.

If any friend of the library has the old Greenleaf National Arithmetic that they will part with, we shall be very glad to obtain it, or any other of the older books on mathematics; also any of the singing books used during 1800, especially those published in the early part of the century.

REPORT OF TREASURER OF TUCKER FREE LIBRARY.

It again becomes the duty of the Treasurer to make his Annual Report of the financial condition of the library for the information of the Citizens of the town. In doing this he would say that no change has been made in the securities of the trust fund except that five shares of the stock of the Capital Fire Insurance Company, a five per cent investment, has been exchanged for the same number of shares of The Underwriters Insurance Co., a six per cent stock, which in the judgment of the trustees was equally as secure and would yield a larger income. I would say that all of the securities of this fund are pronounced by those qualified to judge to be well secured and conservative, safe to hold as a permanent investment, and not of speculative value. It continues to be the policy of the Trustees to keep back the accumulation of dividends on Savings Bank Deposits to provide for shrinkages made possible when it becomes necessary to change the investment of these trust funds. You will notice that nothing has been used for expenses of the library except the income from Stocks and Bonds of the fund the amount of which is thirteen hundred and fifty six dollars which at present is not enough to give its patrons all of the advantages of a City library or the purchase of as many books as your trustees would be glad to furnish yet, I think it will be admitted that our town ranks with any of its size in the state, for service rendered to its patrons and at very small cost to the town financially. Personally I wish to thank the librarians for their courteous treatment of the public and also the Janitor for his part in keeping building and grounds in such fine condition.

Following will be found a list of the assets of the Tucker Free Library, Feb. 15, 1908:
